

Participants in the 5th NCOAL conference March 5. - 6. 2013.

Subject: Practical information before you arrive

Dear conference participant!

We would like to inform you of the following:

1. Fly bus. There are regular Fly buses in connection with every flight, between Keflavik International Airport and the Central Bus Station (BSÍ) in Reykjavik. The bus service brings you directly to your hotel, be sure to buy a ticket all the way.
 - Tickets can be bought on arrival inside the terminal building at the Reykjavik Excursions booth or in the ticket machine located by the exit door of the terminal building.
 - Sometimes you can even buy the ticket on board Icelandair planes.
 - Tickets can also be bought online prior to your journey on www.flybus.is
2. Money can be exchanged at the local bank at Keflavik airport, and ATM machines are located widely around town, close to the hotels and credit cards are accepted (almost) everywhere in Iceland. The exchange rate should be better than in your home country.
3. Monday 4th March – early registration and welcome drinks at SKÁLI- University of Iceland, School of Education, v/ Stakkahlíð Háteigsveg between 18.00 – 19.00.
4. Tuesday 5th March – registration for late arrivals 8.30-9.00. The conference opens at 9:00. University of Iceland, School of Education, v/ Stakkahlíð Háteigsveg
5. Tuesday 5th March – Culture and history walk Reykjavík downtown 18.00-19.00. Meet at the harbor and take a short walk through old downtown Reykjavík with a guide - interesting stories and sights -. The tour ends at the Iðnó Restaurant for the conference dinner.
6. Tuesday 5th March – Conference dinner Restaurant Iðnó 19.00. For those who have not registered yet please let us know if you will be attending the dinner.
7. Please note that if you have food allergies or food intolerance you must also notify the waiter on site - we have also sent the requests beforehand.

8. With our natural hot water we strongly recommend that you bring your swimsuits, there are open air swimming pools all around in Reykjavik and then there is, of course the Blue Lagoon not to be missed! The weather is for ever changing so better to bring warm and waterproof clothes and good shoes. <http://www.swimminginiceland.com/>

See information on weather on www.vedur.is

9. Please read the website for further information and updates on the program:
